BRAINERD RESPONDS FOR BELGIAN RELIEF

Under Direction Chairman Rev. Elof G. Carlson Eight Cases of Clothing are Gathered

Red Cross League Baseball Receipts of Brainerd to be Divided 50-50 With Senior And Junior Bodies

Brainerd responded handsomely to the call for Belgian relief. Under the direction of the chairman, Rev. Elof G. Carlson, eight boxes of clothing weighing 1,070 pounds net was collected and shipped and the articles embraced all kinds of wearing apparel, shoes to small sweaters for children, tan o'hanter, bathrobes for men, 77 ladies' waists, 28 pairs of shoes for men, men's overcoats, etc.

It has been announced that the money received from the Brainerd Red Cross League ball games will be divided 50-50 between the Red Cross Senior and Junior Red Cross societies.

The regular meeting of the Red Cross directors held at the Chamber of Commerce was well attended.

The chairman reported the results of the last shipment of the Brainerd Chapter to headquarters and reports of the inspection committee and knitting committee were received and accepted and ordered filed.

The secretary reported donations since the last meeting as follows: The Brainerd lodge of Elks, receipts from the show "America Awake," $284.10; South Long Lake orchestra, $21.05; Ascalon Commandery, Brainerd, $10.00; South Long Farmers' club, $55.00; Egelund Lutheran church, of South Long Lake, $5.00. The donations were accepted and the secretary instructed to write formal acceptance and thanks to the different organizations.

Report of Rev. Carlson, chairman of the Belgium Relief Committee, showing shipment of articles made on March 29th for the Belgium relief fund read and on motion of Mrs. Fleming, seconded by Mrs. Johnson accepted and ordered filed.

The chair announced the appointment of Mrs. J. P. Anderson superintendent of the knitting for the Brainerd Chapter.

The chairman announced that a committee of twenty ladies from the German Evangelical Lutheran church had offered their services and would begin work in knitting garments for the soldiers during the coming week.

The chairman announced that the Episcopal Guild has a well organized group of ladies at work every second Wednesday in the Ransford hotel block. She also announced that the Catholic Order of Foresters ladies were knitting at the rest room for work regularly.

Report of the Junior Red Cross read by the chairman and on motion duly made and carried, accepted and ordered filed.

Geo. D. LaBar, treasurer of the monthly pledge fund, reported that over $1400.00 a month had been pledged and that the committee felt well satisfied with the response of the public. As chairman of the committee to decide upon a plan for collecting these pledges he stated that the city had been divided into districts and collecting chairmen named in each district and that he hoped by April 15th to have the system in complete working order.

The contingent fund of February was reported by the secretary showing receipt of $10.00 and expenditures of $9.62, the same was duly accepted.

Dr. J. A. Thabes brought up the subject of the Red Cross Baseball League and stated that O. A. Peterson had been elected as chairman for Brainerd and to have charge of the finances of the league in this city.

On motion the chapter voted to divide the receipts from the base ball league in this city 50-50 with the Junior Red Cross of Brainerd in recognition of the splendid work being done by that organization.

The secretary reported having visited headquarters to discuss the subject of the Second War Fund campaign and having been urged to take the county chairmanship. Discussion of the campaign followed and it was decided informally that a series of auctions begin in the county during the campaign week of May 27th and would probably be the most satisfactory plan. No action was taken and the discussion was informal.

Prepared to Waste a Million Lives on the West Front

(By United Press)

Washington, April 16—Germany is prepared to waste a million or more lives on the west front offensive it was learned here before the offensive began. Militaryists and socialists conferred and reached an understanding that the socialists would not object if the losses were kept down to a million and a half.

Seventeen Divisions Hurlled Against City Before it Was Taken

(By United Press)

With British Afield, April 16—17 divisions swept against Bailleul before it fell. Von Stettin's fresh troops attacked from the south, Von Garrowitz hurled a storm of troops past the city on the east while Von Hindenburg is rushing reinforcements and is attacking from near Merville.

Secretary Baker Returns Safely From Battle Front

(By United Press)

Washington, April 16—Secretary Baker has arrived safely from the battle front to this country and has landed at an Atlantic port from which he telephoned officials that he will be in Washington at once.

Feeling of Pride in American Army

An Atlantic Port, April 16—I have a feeling of pride and confidence in the American army, Secretary Baker said on his arrival. He highly regards the American morale.

Czernin Takes Command Brigade Italian Front

Copenhagen, April 16—Count Czernin who resigned as the Austrian foreign minister has received the command of an Austrian brigade on the Italian front.

COUNT CZERNIN
Who has resigned as foreign minister of Austria.

Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, according to a dispatch from Vienna, has resigned. Emperor Charles accepted the resignation and entrusted Count Czernin with the conduct of foreign affairs until his successor is appointed. The recent publication by the French government of the futile peace appeal put out by Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary in March 1917, and the efforts of the emperor and the Austro-Hungarian foreign office to explain this letter to the satisfaction of Germany and the German emperor probably were the most potent influences in bringing about the resignation of Count Czernin.

Hindenburg Won Important Victory

(By United Press)

Von Hindenburg won a most important victory in the Flanders drive through the capture of Bailleul and the British abandonment of Wulverghem. Although the British evacuated the latter place there is nothing to indicate that the Germans occupied the city. As Hindenburg drove the wedge westward between Ypres, Comines and LeBasse canal Bailleul became the key to Messines ridge. This is a strong defensive position. Hindenburg expects to work around behind this ridge and attack the British from the rear. If Messines ridge falls only a miracle will save Ypres.

Important Point on Flanders Front Taken by Germans

(By United Press)

London, April 16—Gen. Haig reported that the Germans have captured Bailleul one of the most important strategic points on the north portion of the Flanders front. Bailleul has been the scene of the most desperate fighting in the entire Flanders drive and was the stronghold from whence the British hurled back the Germans from the northern edge of the Flanders salient. It guarded the entire Ypres salient from the south and its fall endangers the British positions in Ypres on the Messines ridge and in Zonnebeke.

Little Falls Soldier is Reported Wounded

Ottawa, Ontario, April 16—Among the Americans reported in today's casualty list is W. Hamilton, Little Falls, Minnesota.

Like the western offensive in France, the drive for sale of bonds in Crow Wing county has taken on the aspect of a great big push followed by a steady pressure until the goal is reached. The one big difference is that Hindenburg promised his people that he would be through and in Paris on April 1st, we promise to be through with our push by April 29th and there is no doubt that Crow Wing county will be over the top before that time as promised.

It is not to be expected that the first few days will loom up strong because the solicitors are just getting under way and reports can come in only slowly.

The first canvassing district to raise its allotment was the Riverton district, with J. C. Herbst as chairman. In two and one-half hours he raised $55,600. The Pittsburgh Steel Ore Company was a substantial subscriber.

Bay Lake township was the first township to raise its allotment and becomes thereby a winner of an honor flag. Bay Lake had perfected a splendid organization and finished its work hurriedly. It had an enthusiastic meeting Saturday evening addressed by Supt. W. C. Cobb.

As near as can be estimated about $225,000 have already been subscribed. This sum includes large subscriptions by mining companies and that of the railway company.

Among the early subscribers was F. W. Woolworth Co. The Brainerd branch was allotted $200 by its main office as its portion. A number of lodges have already taken out bonds. A letter was sent to over sixty organizations requesting them to subscribe. It is anticipated that many more will come in. The Eagles last night voted $500 for this purpose.

Pegnot district reported that it has already raised one-half of its allotment. One solicitor in Pelican township visited and got subscriptions from twenty-two people in one day.

The loyalty meeting at Ironton last night was the best attended meeting held anywhere in the county. The Home Guard paraded and drilled, the band played in the hall where the meeting was held, and four speakers were on the program. Major J. P. Long presided. The enthusiasm was great.

The second day of the Liberty Loan drive was ushered in with a cold, drizzling rain, but it in no manner served to dampen the ardor of the (Continued on page 5)

EVERY GERMAN PRISONER
IN COUNTRY PUT TO WORK
GERMANY SEIZES FOOD
SENT AMERICAN PRISONERS

(By United Press)

Washington, April 16—The war department has ordered every German prisoner of war in this country put to work and hundreds of them will be put to building roads.

Whether the prisoners taken by General Pershing will be brought to this country is not yet determined.

Complaints regarding German food and camp conditions come from American prisoners in Germany. International law requires that prisoners be given the same food treatment as the soldiers of the nation, but Germany is not doing this although the United States is scrupulously obeying the mandate of the law in this respect.

The United States is now following the British custom of sending food and clothing to her prisoners in Germany through Switzerland but believes that Germany is seizing these and substituting her poorer quality of supplies.

Germans Fail to Pierce Allied Line After Seven-Day Push
in Ypres Sector.

FOE ATTACK IS BROKEN

Attempt to Break Through or Take Important Railroad Junctions Fail
—Counter Attack By British Probable.

London, April 16.—The momentum of their attack has been broken and the waves of the Teutonic forces are receding before the rock of the British defense, seven days after the Germans launched their gigantic assault against the British lines between Lens and Ypres.

While the Germans have made gains of ground and have driven a wedge into the Allied lines to a considerable depth, they seem to have failed in their attempt to break through or take important railroad junctions.

During the last day there have been bitterly fought engagements at four places, all on the northern side of the salient to the south of Ypres. Seven assaults against the British trenches at Merville, near the apex of the triangular dent in the British lines have been hurled back by the British. Neuve Eglise, on the extreme northwestern spur of the Mesines ridge, has been taken by the Germans after a struggle which will go into history as one of the greatest of the past week.

Counter Attack Probable.

The British, however, have not retired far, and it is probable that they will at once organize a counter attack to force the Germans out of the town, which, if held, might be a "kicking off" point for an attack which might outflank and make untenable Mesines ridge, the key to the British positions about Ypres.

Bailleul and Wulverghem, between Neuve Eglise and Merville, also have been the scenes of hard fighting, but except for Neuve Eglise, the northern side of the salient has stood firm.
On the southern side of the salient,
according to Berlin, fierce struggles
have been fought.

It has been the German plan of campaign since March 21, when the great offensive started, to strike hard at some particular sector and if that blow was parried to turn powerful attacks against some new point. This procedure probably will be followed in the next few days by a new assault
somewhere south of Arras.

New Amiens Drive Possible.

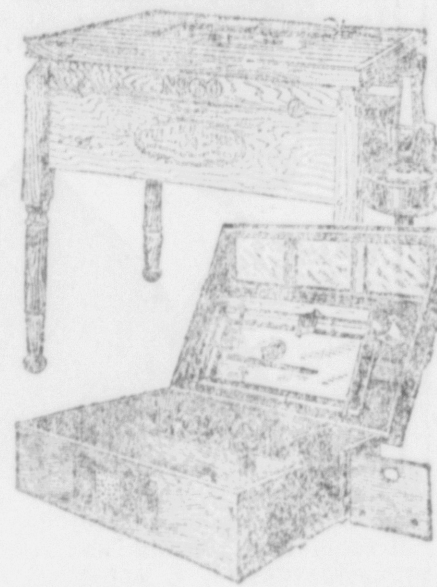

It may be that the savage fighting
reported at Hangard-en-Santerre, south of Albert and on the center of the line facing Amiens may mark the beginning of a new attempt to sweep westward toward Amiens.

Cuyuna Range People Will Arrive Friday to Present "Pinafore" at Brainerd Opera House

Without a doubt the musical feature of the spring, which will create more genuine interest and enthusiasm than anything thus far, will be the presentation of the famous old nautical opera "Pinafore" in Brainerd Friday evening, April 19, at the Brainerd opera house.

It is with a feeling of confidence that the management has arranged for its appearance in Brainerd, for, aside from the fact that Brainerd enjoys a high class musical comedy, one that has at a former date been produced there, they believe Brainerd would like to demonstrate to the Cuyuna people that they too can get behind a presentation of this nature and push it as hard as the Cuyuna range people have done to functions of various kinds from Brainerd. It is true that the proceeds will not be left in Brainerd, neither will they be retained on the range as the entire proceeds less all actual expenses in producing will be turned into the national war fund of the K. of C. and Y. M. C. A. organizations.

Edwin Harris Bergh has certainly proven himself to be equal to the occasion and his abilities as a musical director we believe, cannot be surpassed. Mr. Bergh has directed the presentation of this opera in Brainerd several years ago and in addition, the opera has been presented under his direction in Superior and several other towns. Being in possession of this profitable experience and possessing the ability to direct productions of this nature, the public can rest assured that the performance will bear evidence of having been directed by a most capable leader.

The performances in Aitkin and Crosby have been entirely successful. Ironton will certainly get behind this production for they have the reputation of doing just this and Brainerd ought to direct its energies likewise.

CZERNIN OUT OF OFFICE

Austrian Foreign Minister Gives Up His Portfolio.

Made Scapegoat of Emperor Charles—Remains Until Successor is Named.

Washington, April 16.—The resignation of Count Czernin, as Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, news of which has been received here has led to much speculation among officials and diplomats as to the causes which brought about the rather dramatic exit of the Austrian official at a moment when, through his decided change of attitude toward war issues, involving his complete acceptance of the extreme German views, it had been supposed he had greatly strengthened his position.

The steps leading to the count's act are not disclosed, but the publication by the French government of the emperor's peace offer letter to France early in 1917 probably hastened his withdrawal.

Count Czernin remains in office until a successor is announced.

The recent publication by the French government of the futile peace appeal put out by Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary in March, 1917, and the efforts of the emperor and the Austro-Hungarian foreign office to explain this letter to the satisfaction of Germany and the German emperor were the most potent influences in bringing about the resignation of Count Czernin.

At the Best Tonight

Among other things Douglas is called upon to shoot two holes through the "bad man's" hat while it reposes peacefully upon the latter's head, some hundred yards away. When the usual substitute was suggested, Fairbanks refused to listen to it, thereby retaining his distinction of never "faking a stunt" before the camera. Frank Campeau, the popular Broadway actor who portrays the outlaw character, being familiar with Douglas' ability as a sharpshooter, readily agreed to go through the bit.

but when the star leveled his guns and fired two shots directly at the actor's head, even he had a sinking feeling in his stomach. "I know Douglas is a crack-shot, but even at that, when I looked into the muzzles of those 'young cannons' it made me a bit uneasy," said Campeau later. The scene was enacted exactly as per schedule, however, and Campeau's hat lay on the ground before he realized it was all over.

At the Best Tomorrow

When a photoplay lover sees a production roll smoothly off, reel after reel, picturing a steady stream of scenes carefully fitted together and following one another like the words of a written or spoken story, he seldom realizes what genius and labor made it all possible, when it was finally assembled from fragmentary bits and made into a thrilling story of human interest.

In watching "The Call of the East", the film in which Sessue Hayakawa, Japanese star in Paramount pictures, is appearing tomorrow at the Best theatre, one will realize more than ever the infinite care that was needed to produce such a work of art. In this case, the man responsible is George H. Melford director of many of the most famous Paramount pictures, such as "The Cheat" in which Hayakawa and Fannie Ward were the co-stars, and others.

Mr. Melford was born in Rochester, N. Y., and has been an actor as well as a director. But for the last ten years he has devoted his entire time to film production, working most of that time at Hollywood, California, where he is now directing for Paramount.

Cork, April 16.—In the city churches a letter from the Catholic bishop of Cork was read, advising the young men of Ireland to avoid playing into the hands of their enemies by joining a formal military rising, which the bishop said would be quickly crushed. The letter said the bishop thought that the coming conference between the Nationalist and the Sinn Féin leaders a program would be evolved. The bishop, therefore, advised the people to defer action pending decision of the conferees.

LOOK FOR LOST COLLIER

Secretary Daniels Orders Search For Missing Cyclops.

In Determination to Ascertain Fate of Cyclops Fastest Scout Ships Are Detailed.

Washington, April 16.—Secretary Daniels has ordered additional fast scout ships detailed for unremitting search for some trace of the missing naval collier Cyclops. The hunt will be carried on by American and French naval and merchant vessels, until every possible hope of finding the Cyclops is exhausted.

Officials refused to believe that the great 19,000 ton collier and the 293 lives she carried could have been wiped out without leaving a trace. Orders have gone out, therefore, for the searching vessels to "quart" every rod of the route covered by the Cyclops and to visit every one of the scores of islands which dot that portion of the sea. Every isolated bay will be entered and every beach scrutinized.

Navy officials frankly confessed that no theory yet advanced to explain the disappearance of the Cyclops from March 4 when she left Barbadoes—it was officially stated that that was the West Indian port from which the sailed—seemed plausible in the face of the facts.

PRO-GERMANISM FILLS WEST

Report Made By Security League Worker After Tour.

New York, April 16.—The west is filled with surreptitious pro-Germanism and obvious apathy to the war and its significance, according to Dr. Robert M. McElroy, educational director of the National Security league who has just returned after a three weeks' tour of the territory he indicts. "The melting pot has not melted. There are vast communities in this nation thinking today not in terms of America," says Dr. McElroy, in summing up his impressions. "Propaganda is required in almost every foot of American soil, and propaganda in its essence means that our system of education has failed."

He advocates the immediate discontinuance of the use of German in schools. In the course of his tour he visited St. Paul, Des Moines, St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Mo., Topeka, Denver, Omaha and Madison, Wis.

Every Hand in the Land

EVERY hand in the land owes a duty to the Liberty Bell. The principles of Liberty and Justice which our fathers fought for in 1776 have been attacked.

The German Kaiser himself has written: "I am dreaming a dream of a German World Empire—and my mailed fist shall succeed."

Already his horde of self-styled Huns has spread over the lands of five nations. And wherever it has gone it has left desolation.

In those nations today there are hundreds of thousands of men, women, and little children who can no longer raise their hands in defense of their country.

We say we live in a free land. But our freedom today stands or falls with the success or failure of our boys who are fighting for us.

That we may halt the Huns in their mad war of conquest, our Government needs Billions of Dollars in the Third Liberty Loan. Every hand in the land must give. Every dollar which is not being used for necessities, must ring the Liberty Bell. The man or woman who does not buy his or her share of Third Liberty Loan Bonds has no right to the Liberty he or she now enjoys.

APRIL FOOLS' DAY

Did you hear the usual number of fool jokes on April Fools' day this year?
You didn't. Nobody did.
America is not in a joking mood.
The people of this great Democracy are gradually growing very serious.
They are fast becoming earnest,
daddy earnest. There is no joke about having your boy fighting on the blood-soaked fields of France.
They find they have less and less time to joke. More and more they are thinking and planning and working.
If the Kaiser is informed, he should begin to wonder why his particular God allows America to become so serious.
This frame of mind means the girding for battle to the death of Autocracy's greatest antagonist.
It means accomplishment for America, for freedom for right.
It means that inhumanity and tyranny and hate, as rulers of the world, are doomed.
Surely April, 1918, has nothing to do with fooling.

ARE YOU AMONG THE DRAFTED?

Now that the country has issued a third call for money, everyone must answer. The men and women who are able to buy bonds are ordered by this call to buy them. They are as much drafted as the men who go into the training camps. This is true also of the men who can assist in the organizing of their district and in the actual selling of bonds.
Whatever work you are fitted to do and can do in carrying out the Government's orders, you are in duty bound to do.

BONDS OR TAXES.

Liberty Bonds are like volunteerism. Taxes are like the draft. The fewer the volunteers the larger the draft. The fewer the bonds the higher the taxes. We've got to get the men and we got to get the money.
And, don't worry, the government will get both. Uncle Sam isn't arguing with us—he's just telling us.

There are the soundest reasons for holding Liberty Bonds. Their quotations under par on the stock exchange means a loss only to those who sell.
The financial history of the U. S.
shows that in times of peace all of its bonds have gone above par, some as high as 139. The tremendous growth of our resources and of our trade, our domestic trade, alone having increased from $30,000,000,000 to $64,000,- 000,000 in the last four years, warrants the belief that our government bonds are the soundest investments
in the world and with the restoration of peace conditions will command a handsome premium in the market.

Guilty of violating the espionage act is the verdict that stands against James O. Peterson, politician and prominent citizen of Minnesota for more than 25 years. He has been a follower of LaFollette and his sentence will be imposed on Friday by Judge Page Morris and will not be more than 20 years in prison or a fine not to exceed $10,000 or both.
The stain will follow him through life.

The man or woman who buys a $1,000 Liberty Bond provides the government with sufficient funds to equip 25 soldiers with two rifles apiece, or a full company with one hundred rounds of ammunition. The man or woman who buys $20,000 of bonds can say that he or she provides the clothing of an entire company;
about $15,000 more will fully equip
it.

gress in the Sixth district in opposition to Mark J. Woolley, the Park Rapids candidate, who filed shortly

NINTH DISTRICT
OPENS BIG DRIVE

Third Liberty Loan Campaign Opens With Enthusiasm In Northwestern States.

GOING "OVER THE TOP"

Forty Thousand Solicitors Start Canvassing—Many Localities Report Amount Oversubscribed After Few Hours' Work.

Minneapolis, April 16.—Fifty million dollars, 40 per cent of the self-apportioned quota for the district and nearly 50 per cent of the government quota, was subscribed in the Ninth Federal Reserve district in the first day of the district drive. This was the estimate placed by those in charge of the campaign, although no definite figures were available on which to base returns for the results of the initial 12 hours' activity.

Minneapolis, April 16.—In the first seven hours of the Third Liberty Loan campaign the states of the Ninth Reserve district had bought $25,000,000 to $40,000,000 of the $25,- 000 apportionment, it was estimated at headquarters based on telegrams received. This did not include any Minneapolis money as the local campaign does not open until Wednesday.
Except for rain, eastward from the Black Hills in South Dakota, which did not prevent 5,000 automobile salesmen in that state from taking the field, the weather generally was good.
The job of placing the full $25,000,- 000 in 68 hours got under way auspiciously. Nearly 40,000 solicitors were at work.

Minneapolis, meanwhile, made some changes of program. Douglas Fairbanks, reported ill, will not be here Wednesday. Instead, Marion L. Burton, president of the university, and Private H. R. Peat will speak at the first big noonday meeting at the Arcadia hall.

All Districts Busy.

The loan campaign now is under way for the first time in all the 12
districts of the country, the ninth district's start making the number complete.

The total of the $3,000,000,000 loan that has so far been placed, was reported by Washington at $629,947,550.

On the assumption that the Minneapolis district has so far raised $25,- 000,000 to $40,000,000 of $25,000,000 requirement, these comparisons appear as to percentage of totals raised in the various districts, as reported from Washington, the Minneapolis
district being on its first day, the other districts having been at it since April 6: St. Louis, 26 per cent; Minneapolis, 25 to 30; New York, 26; Dallas, 25; Boston, 21; Chicago, 10; Philadelphia, 15; Cleveland, 14; Kansas City, 14; San Francisco, 11; Richmond, 7; Atlanta, 4.

Reports Show Determination.

Wesley C. Melbowell, state chairman for North Dakota, wired that bond salesmen are hard at it and that he expects reports more or less definite and favorable from 25 per cent of the counties in a few hours. H.
A. Oldham, state chairman, said South Dakota is going at her $22,000,000
job with grim determination to do what has been asked of her.

FOE IS FORCED BACK

All Weight of Metal and Men Loosed
Against Americans Awaits Enemy
Nothing—Germans Lose Heavily
In Attacks.

With the American Army in France,
April 16.—Holding their lines intact in spite of the weight of men and metal the enemy has loosed against them, American forces near Toul are standing firm before heavy attacks by the Germans. The enemy has lost heavily.

The constant German attacks in this sector may have some bearing on the development of the German offensive campaign, and much interest in the situation throughout the region held by General Pershing's men is evidenced by the Allied leaders.

Outnumbered, Drive Foe Back.

With the American Army in France,
April 16.—The German attack against the American positions on the right bank of the Meuse, north of St. Mihiel, was made by a force of 400 pic-eted troops who were recently brought there from the Russian front. Although the Americans were outnumbered more than two to one, they completely repulsed the enemy, driving him back to his own trenches. The known enemy casualties include 64 dead, many wounded and 11 prisoners beside a number of wounded who were dragged back to the German lines
by their comrades.

The Germans attempted to deceive
the Americans by appearing in front of the trenches and speaking French and English, and also by yelling
"Gas." The deception, however, was soon discovered and cost the enemy dearly. The American casualties were comparatively slight.

Wins Lone Offensive.

Numerous stories of individual bravery poured into the headquarters. A young American of Italian descent born in a Pennsylvania coal mining town, killed one German and captured three. He saw eight Germans walking in a communication trench ahead of him and, altogether alone, he shot and killed one and ran after the others capturing two and wounding some of those who escaped. He then returned to the American line and turned the prisoners over to a non-commissioned officer and coolly asked for a match.

The officer jokingly said: "I'll give you a match if you bring in another prisoner." The Italian, who is only five feet four inches tall took him at his word and went back over the parapet. He returned in less than five minutes walking with drawn bayonet behind a six foot German, who was yelling "Kamerad, Kamerad."

GENERAL CLEAN UP ORDERED

Brainerd Commanded to Line Up in "Spotless Town" Shape by City Council Monday

ORDINANCE NO. 254 PASSED

No Licenses for Junk Dealers Until Council First Passes on Such Applications

Vice President Andrew Anderson presided at the council meeting Monday evening in the absence of President F. M. Koop. Others absent at roll call were Aldermen Stallman, Hall and Lyonsals.

The treasurer's report for March was read and ordered filed as was also the inventory of the water and light board property.

B. E. Koecher requested an increase in pay to $70 per month for services as sanitary policeman during the months of June, July and August. On motion of Aldermen Peterson and Turcotte the request was granted.

On motion of Aldermen Turcotte and Strickler, carried, the city clerk was directed to insert a notice in the newspaper requesting a general cleaning up of residence lots and premises and for the placing of ashes on the streets under the direction of the city engineer.

Alderman Stallman then joined the session.

The city engineer was directed to put in a culvert across the street near A. L. Anderson's place in Southeast Brainerd, on motion of Aldermen Gustafson and Anderson, carried.

Aldermen Turcotte and Stallman moved that the city engineer be directed to place a suitable railing on the west side of the dump near and south of the macadamized portion of Sixth street. The motion carried.

On motion of Aldermen Strickler and Anderson, carried, the city engineer was directed to examine and report on the condition of the sidewalk leading to Evergreen cemetery. Alderman Lyonsals joined the session.

Mayor R. A. Beise addressed the council on the subject of the canvass for the sale of the third Liberty Loan bonds. He impressed upon all the necessity of making Brainerd's quota.

Ordinance No. 254 was given its second reading and under suspension of the rules was passed, all voting aye. This ordinance aims to do away with the practice people have of cutting across lots, stepping on lawns, grass plots, etc., and provides penalties.

An offer from N. B. Hall for sprinkling of street intersections in the business portion for the present season for an allowance of $50 was read and on motion by Aldermen Lyonsals and Stallman was duly carried and the offer accepted.

Aldermen Strickler and Lyonsals moved that the chief of police be directed to give written notice to each junk dealer, that the provisions of section 8742, General Laws 1913, must be observed. The motion carried.

Aldermen Turcotte and Stallman moved that no license for junk dealers be issued before the application for such has been passed upon and favorably by the council. This carried.

Aldermen Lyonsals and Gustafson moved and the motion carried that the clerk be directed to issue city warrants to the treasurer of the Brainerd City band for $290.85, being the amount collected from the March tax settlement.

COUNTY IS BOUND TO WIN FLAG TWO-THIRDS OF QUOTA RAISED

general public and solicitors are of one voice in reporting the progress of the drive, namely: that people, instead of waiting to be solicited are in many cases approaching the solicitors in their wards and asking "When are you going to get around to me?"

It is recognized that the most powerful aid that can be given our soldiers in France is the purchase of Liberty Bonds with which to furnish the sinews of war. It means big guns, big shells and victory and the sooner this victory comes, the smaller the loss of life and the sooner our boys will be able to return to home and loved ones.

How to Pay.

Bonds can be purchased at your bank on the partial payment plan, the bank will loan you money, keeping the bond as security and it is really no trouble to pay for them, in fact proves a means of saving as well as affords an opportunity to assist the government in a most practical manner.

The 15th was pay day and proved an auspicious opening day for the Third Liberty Loan drive. Many men indicated their intention of putting aside a certain amount for bonds and when solicitors called on them today they were found ready.

Rural Districts.

It is a noticeable fact that the rural districts are coming to the front with more alacrity this time than in the past and that farmers are buying bonds, almost to a man. Reports from every section of the county today indicated this and the reports generally are of the most optimistic nature, a presage that the county will certainly go over the top in good shape.

Mr. Zapffe, however, warns the public against over-confidence and states that no one should feel that he can "let George do it." Every person has his or her responsibility in the matter and it is a case of buy bonds, have a bond in every home of the county and in this manner insure a splendid response from the county.

Reports from Crosby, Ironton, Pequot, Deerwood and other localities today were all of one tenor, namely: "We expect to make a good showing and will do our part to put old Crow Wing county over the top."

The bond-buying idea has almost come to be a mania and the public will not be satisfied until there is not a home, from the humblest to the mansion, where the full quota of government bonds is not taken.

MONTHLY PLEDGES PROMPTLY PAID

Payment Stations Designated in the Several Wards for the Collection of Red Cross

SUBSCRIBERS TOLD BY LETTER

All Who Have Pledged Sums Will Please Bring Blue Cards Along for Entry of Receipt

The regular monthly collection of pledges to the Brainerd Chapter, A. R. C., began yesterday under the plan outlined by Treasurer George D. LaBar and Chairman O. A. Peterson of the finance committee and proved a success in every respect, payments being made promptly and without any confusion at the different places indicated as official collection depots. The payments are due on the 15th of each month and the following places have been designated for the payment of the same:

N. P. Hospital and West Brainerd—Miss Clara Small at N. P. hospital.

First Ward—L. Hohman, 212 S. 6th St.

Second Ward—G. W. Chadbourne, 207 S. 6th St.

Third Ward, 1st Division—Hugo A. Kaatz, 203 Kindred St. 2nd Division—A. A. Arnold, 224 N. E. 4th Ave.

Fourth Ward—Miss Bessie Bredenberg, at K. S. Bredenberg's store, 1302 E. Oak St.

Fifth Ward—O. A. Peterson, at Bye & Peterson Co.'s store, 616 Front St. First National Bank Building and special for non resident subscribers—B. L. Lagerquist at First National bank.

All subscribers have been advised by letter of the places their payment should be made and urged to pay when due and it was a noticeable fact yesterday that early in the morning the different collection depots were busy receiving for the monthly payments and that these payments were being made in good spirits, freely and willingly.

All who have pledged sums each month to the Red Cross are urged to bring their blue cards to the collection centers in order that they may have their payments registered on the same. This does away with any necessity for a receipt and greatly assists the collection agencies.

A sum has been transferred from the monthly pledge fund to purchase material with and this fund is to be kept intact from other funds of the Red Cross in order that a strict accounting may be made at any time it is desired.

The case of the two men will be taken up Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock before U. S. Commissioner W. A. Fleming. C. L. Benedict is their attorney.

A LOCAL HISTORY OF OLD CROW WING

Interesting Chapter of Early Memories in the History of First County Seat of Crow Wing County

WRITTEN BY C. H. BEAULIEU

Tells of Incidents Long Ago Forgotten but Which Will be Remembered by Early Day Settlers

(Continuation of the series of articles furnished to Dispatch by Leon E. Lum.)

To students of the map of Minnesota, the name Crow Wing is geographically historical mainly as a county appellation.

While Brainerd may be proud of its standing as a well known town in Minnesota, it cannot boast of antiquity, for its creation is comparatively new as it came into being when the Northern Pacific R. R. Co. decided to throw its bridge span across the "Great Father of Waters" at this particular spot of its rushing course to the Gulf of Mexico.

But long before the road decided to cross the Mississippi at a certain point and build a city to be called Brainerd, there was a little hamlet called Crow Wing at a point about ten miles below, known for many years by the English speaking people as Crow Wing, and before by the French traders and French mixed bloods as L'Alle du Corbeau.

And this by the way, is the translation of the Chippewa name of the Crow Wing river from which the little village took its name.

The Indians called the river Kah-kah-wi-givan-see, literally Raven's Wing River.

The English translations made both linguistic and poetic errors in translating the Indian term into Crow Wing.

The raven may not be a noble

ON GUARD

At this time of the year people feel weak, tired, listless, their blood is thin, they have lived indoors and perhaps expended all their mental and bodily energy and they want to know how to renew their energy and stamina, overcome headaches and backaches, have clear eyes, a smooth, ruddy skin, and feel the exhilaration of real good health tinging their body. Good, pure, rich, red blood is the best insurance against ill of all kinds. Almost all diseases come from impure and impoverished blood. It is to be noticed in the pale or pimply face, the tired, haggard appearance or the listless manner.

Drink hot water a half hour before meals, and for a vegetable tonic there's nothing better than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the old-fashioned herbal remedy, which has had such a fine reputation for fifty years. It contains no alcohol or narcotics. It is made from Golden Seal root, Blood-root, Oregon grape root, Queen's root, Black Cherry bark, extracted with glycerine and made into tablets and liquid. Tablets sixty cents, at most drug stores.

In order to insure pure blood and to build up the system try this tonic known as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Get it now!

for region to an inland point upon the banks of the Mississippi.

But it must suffice to state that the transfer was made and Mr. Beaulieu found himself lord of a new region.

He was familiar with the trading needs and the territory, for in his position as superintendent or department agent, he had regularly visited on inspection all the inland posts of the company.

Certain historical events must be associated with the territory and events of the period.

The government had decided to erect a military post in the upper regions of Minnesota and did so, building a fort on the western bank of the Mississippi river opposite the mouth of the Nokai river flowing into the Mississippi. This fort was at first called Fort Gaines, afterwards Fort Ripley.

A military reservation was established on both sides of the Mississippi, on the eastern side extending far enough north to include the site of the American Fur Co. trading post and beyond slightly to a point where unceded Chippewa lands began.

Mr. Beaulieu decided to locate the military reservation so as to be independent of military regulations.

It is necessary to state that shortly after his arrival at Crow Wing, the American Fur Co. disposed of its trade to the Pierre Chouteau Co. of St. Louis, Mo., a firm then doing business throughout the region vaguely known as the northwest, and thus including the Missouri as well as the Mississippi regions.

The place selected by Mr. Beaulieu was on the eastern bank of the Mississippi opposite the upper mouth of the Crow Wing, and with a large force of loggers, sawyers and carpenters he erected his cluster of post buildings, one of which was a large two-story log building clap-boarded outside and celled within and designed for his residence.

At Long Prairie, Todd county, a band of Winnebago Indians removed from Wisconsin had been located, and an agency established under the charge of Major Lovrie. (These Indians were again moved to Wisconsin. I have heard my mother tell of seeing them floating down the river.—L. E. L.)

The Pierre Chouteau Co. established a trading post there and this was included within Mr. Beaulieu's jurisdiction, and Mr. Robert Fairbanks placed in charge. This company in taking over the American Fur Co.'s trade had established a Minnesota head at St. Paul, and Dr. Borup formerly of LaPointe, was placed in charge. In the earlier regime, the Sioux trade had been in charge of H. H. Sibley with headquarters at Mendota. Mr. Sibley soon gave up trade, went into politics, became first territorial congressman, afterwards became first governor of the state of Minnesota and later during the Sioux outbreak, became a brigadier general.

After the Chouteaus assumed charge, all merchandise came direct from New York and England to St. Paul, and Mr. Beaulieu obtained his stock from St. Paul. All had to be transported from St. Paul by team. He had early interested himself in real estate in the vicinity of Belle Prairie and colonized a large number of Canadian French people there and from this colony he obtained his teams and teamsters. In the very early days the French colony was more an adjunct of the Chouteau Fur Co. than agriculturists. Mr. Beaulieu himself became something of a farmer, for he started 160 acres under cultivation at Belle Prairie raising only oats which he readily contracted to the authorities at Ft. Ripley.

He also leased 80 acres upon the military reservation near what then began to be known as Crow Wing Lake simply from association with the Crow Wing villagers who made this spot their rendezvous for social sports and a resort for fishing excursions. This little lake is midway between Crow Wing and Ft. Ripley.

To write about Crow Wing and leave out mention of the "Lake" would be like putting on the play of hamlet without Ophelia for Crow Wing and the "Lake" were as one. The "Lake" too was a common possession of both Crow Wing and Fort Ripley; there the soldiers of the Fort would fish and partake surreptitiously of the whiskey obtained of Louis Meyer and then living near Big Bend just off the military reservation, posing as a tailor, but really living through gains as a "blind-pigger." At the lake, too, would gather the Crow Wingites to fish and drink the whiskey the blind pigger Donald McDonald or "Old Mc" served to the pioneer thirsty ones.

Those were days of simple joys and artificial ones, and they form an important part of Old Crow Wing. Military law and the Indian intercourse law were strict in language but law in effect was not severe, the main thing was to not carry your whiskey bottle in open hand, or in your hip pocket when your coat was off, and like sin in general in human opinion, everything seemed all right if you didn't give yourself away by overt act or shameless inebriety.

Crow Wing and Fort Ripley were frontier outposts and therefore like all frontier places had their sins and yet had their heroics in good deeds and simple life, so we of modern days must praise as well as blame. This moral or immoral history is perhaps a little ahead of actual times for early Crow Wing was simple and orderly in daily action.

While it is true that Mac dispensed spirits sub rosa, the village folk were not patrons to any extent and maintained sobriety. Mac's real patrons were the Indian visitors who bartered furs for whiskey and with their possessions of fire water quietly and soberly left for their distant homes.

The villagers were all faithful in attendance at the little log church which the venerable and saintly Father Pierz erected about the year 1859. (The town of Pierz in Morrison county, was named after him. He moved to Superior and I tried years ago to get a narrative from him but he was old and feeble.—L. E. L.)

The church is now a waste, and only recognizable by the graves which were made on the eastern side of the little temple. Some years after, a little Episcopal church was erected, but this was only when the village had been platted and organized and added to slightly in population.

Speaking truthfully, for many years Crow Wing was a sort of Sleepy Hollow, the only business enterprise was the fur trade and controlled entirely by the P. Chouteau Co., every male was an employee, or a superannuated derelict of the old Fur Co., men who lived mainly in the past when Astor was the absentee landlord. Their wives fished by net in river or Crow Wing lake, and in seasons went to old haunts to make rice or maple sugar. Their industry in this respect was remarkable, and their endurance immeasurably beyond that of their descendants whose contact with civilization has cultivated both the mind and body—the latter into physical weakness. The village then worked commercially and in primitive pursuits of fishing and hunting. On Sundays they worshipped and listened to the simple preaching of a well-beloved priest and pastor, a man who from a far-distant country across the waters, had come in early manhood and given his entire life for the conversion of the Chippewa Indians.

About the year 1855 Mr. Beaulieu purchased the interests of the Chouteau Co. in northern Minnesota, and associated with him Mr. Fairbanks and conducted the business under the firm name of Beaulieu & Fairbanks.

About the year 1856, Mr. Beaulieu wrote to the Hon. H. H. Rice who had succeeded Mr. Sibley as delegate to congress, asking that a bill be introduced into congress to create a highway between St. Paul and St. Vincent on the northern boundary of the territory and to pass through Crow Wing. In effect this would have been only an improvement of the old Pembina trail.

Mr. Rice had visions for his old friend, and instead, succeeded in getting legislation for the building of a railroad, and it was incorporated as the St. Paul & St. Vincent R. R., and so worded as to secure to Crow Wing the passage of the proposed railroad through its site.

Mr. Beaulieu then began a dream of future wealth. He had secured title to the 80 acres near Crow Wing lake; in the railroad he saw the means of transportation for his products and a real town. Under the Indian treaty he had become the beneficiary to a land scrip of 80 acres. He located this on the old village site and posts adjacent called in a surveyor and soon had a lovely town on paper. There were streets and avenues and, I believe, a park. Then he began to sell lots. He secured the setting aside of a part of Morrison county as Crow Wing county with Crow Wing as the county seat. Many lots were sold, some to distant living investors, some to men who did settle and begin to build stores and houses. There was a slight fever and then it began to subside and Mr. Beaulieu's real estate business began in effect moribund. But this did not trouble him, he had a prosperous trade in furs, and by means of inland posts he controlled the whole of the country as far north as Red Lake and the upper Mississippi, and eastwardly to Mille Lac.

About the year 1851 an agency had been established on the Crow Wing river some five miles away by land, and the cash annuities paid, added thousands of dollars to his trade.

He had become something of a politician too and influenced the voting from St. Anthony northward and practically had the Benton county vote in his pocket, this county by the way, in the earlier days extended from Sauk Rapids indefinitely northward.

Perhaps some of the readers are old enough to remember the ancient term "Moccasin Democracy."

Mr. Beaulieu, the late Commodore Kitten in early days a Pembina fur trader, and Charles Cavalier of Pembina, also the famous Joe Rolette, the man who robbed St. Peter of the honor of becoming the capital of the state, were bosses of the party of northern Minnesotans.

Hon. H. H. Sibley, and H. M. Rice

My Country

I chose this country

from all the nations of the world because here my children are free to reap the full fruits of the best that is in them.

I love this country because it gives me opportunity. I will protect it because it protects me.

My country is now in danger. The rights of my children have been attacked. If I do not stand back of my country now—if its principles are wiped from the face of the earth—where will I go?

What opportunities will I have, if the iron hand of the Kaiser is placed on this land? What will my money be worth, if I am a slave? What right have I to freedom, if I allow them to take my freedom from me now?

My country has offered me a mortgage on every penny's worth of property of every man in this great country. My money is not to be taken from me by force as the Germans would do if they came here. I am simply loaning it to my country.

I am proud to do my part.
